LOAD is a professional dealer in works of art and, as such, a 'sujeto obligado' under the Spanish law on the prevention of money laundering (Ley 10/2010, article 2.1.r).

Contracting through this site

Works may be reserved and bought through this site, by persons aged 18 or over. Online reservation and purchase are not yet available on this site: for now, you send us an enquiry, and a purchase is agreed with the gallery by email or at the gallery. Before any order you are shown the steps to follow, the price with its taxes, the delivery terms and your rights; the order is placed with a button marked 'Order with obligation to pay'. The contract is formed in English; a Spanish version of the Terms of sale and of the other legal texts of this site is available to consumers in Spain and prevails for them; Catalan on request. The contract and the version of the Terms you accepted are archived and remain available in your account (not yet available on this site; until it is, we send you a copy by email on request). Typing errors can be corrected at every step before the order, with the Back button. We acknowledge every order by email within 24 hours (LSSI article 28). Full details: Terms of sale.

Prices

Prices are shown to collectors with an access from the gallery (a code, a link or a QR code) and are otherwise given on request, in euros or in US dollars, as stated for each work. Each price is shown before VAT and with VAT. The currency and the amount of your order are those shown on your summary when you press the order button (online orders: not yet available on this site). Delivery and installation terms are stated on each work and before the order.

Intellectual property

Copyright in the works, their images and videos belongs to their artists; the texts, the design and the code of this site belong to L.O.A.D. NFT, S.L. or its licensors. Nothing may be reproduced, extracted or used to train an automated system without written permission, beyond what the law allows for private copying, quotation and the press.
